

The Dames

MANIFESTO

We are The Dames

The Dames are women held in high esteem.

We are fondly admired in our communities,

And humbly receive recognition for our accomplishments and generosity.

We employ talented people and lift them up for their gifts.

Our missions are strong and we are aligned with our values and our purpose.

Our members contribute positively to our communities locally and beyond.

We love connection and collaboration in the truest, deepest sense of these words.

We are dedicated to our companies because they bring us joy and significance.

We are committed to growth and expansion.

We enjoy learning from one another and believe that possibilities are endless.

The world we want to live in is equal, where women have the same opportunities as men and can choose the life we want to live.

We are supported by the men we love and vice versa. We loathe man-bashing.

We provide a safe space to grow.

We have worked smarter in order to grow our businesses, crush through obstacles, grow from our mistakes, achieve progressively higher goals, and do it while helping our fellow members succeed.

We feel that the fact that only 3% of female-owned businesses hit the million dollar revenue level in business is bunk, and we are on a mission to increase that number significantly. We want to employ more people. We want our mission-driven companies to positively impact more of our target audience!

We are here to change this statistic by bringing women together and learning from one another, by sharing resources that give us access to more capital, and by holding one another accountable in our greatness.

We believe...

Laughter is the best medicine.

We are here to positively impact others and change the world with our products and services.

Hitting the million dollar revenue mark and going way beyond is possible, probable, and doable!

We are on epic journeys to achieve our epic missions!

When women have access to other women who have “been there, done that,” they will succeed in getting there too.

A day without laughter is a day wasted.

Personal and professional growth are both essential to achieving success, happiness, and fulfillment.

“At the height of laughter, the Universe is flung into a kaleidoscope of new possibilities.” — Jean Houston

That seriousness is not the key to success. We must laugh and play to be happy and successful.

When surrounded by other women at or above your level playing BIG, you too will play BIG and growth will happen at a faster rate with more FUN! Meghann Conter

Women grow faster and do better when supported by a community of like-minded women.

Women desire community. They may not know how to create it, but they deeply desire it.

Life is better when you're laughing
